TAKEAWAY

This ballot measure is a radical overhaul of regulations with serious unintended consequences.

WHAT IS THE FISH HABITAT MEASURE?

Replaces current permitting system with a complex, costly system

All water and areas surrounding are considered anadromous fish habitat, even if no fish present

Minor vs. major permit

New “mitigation measures”

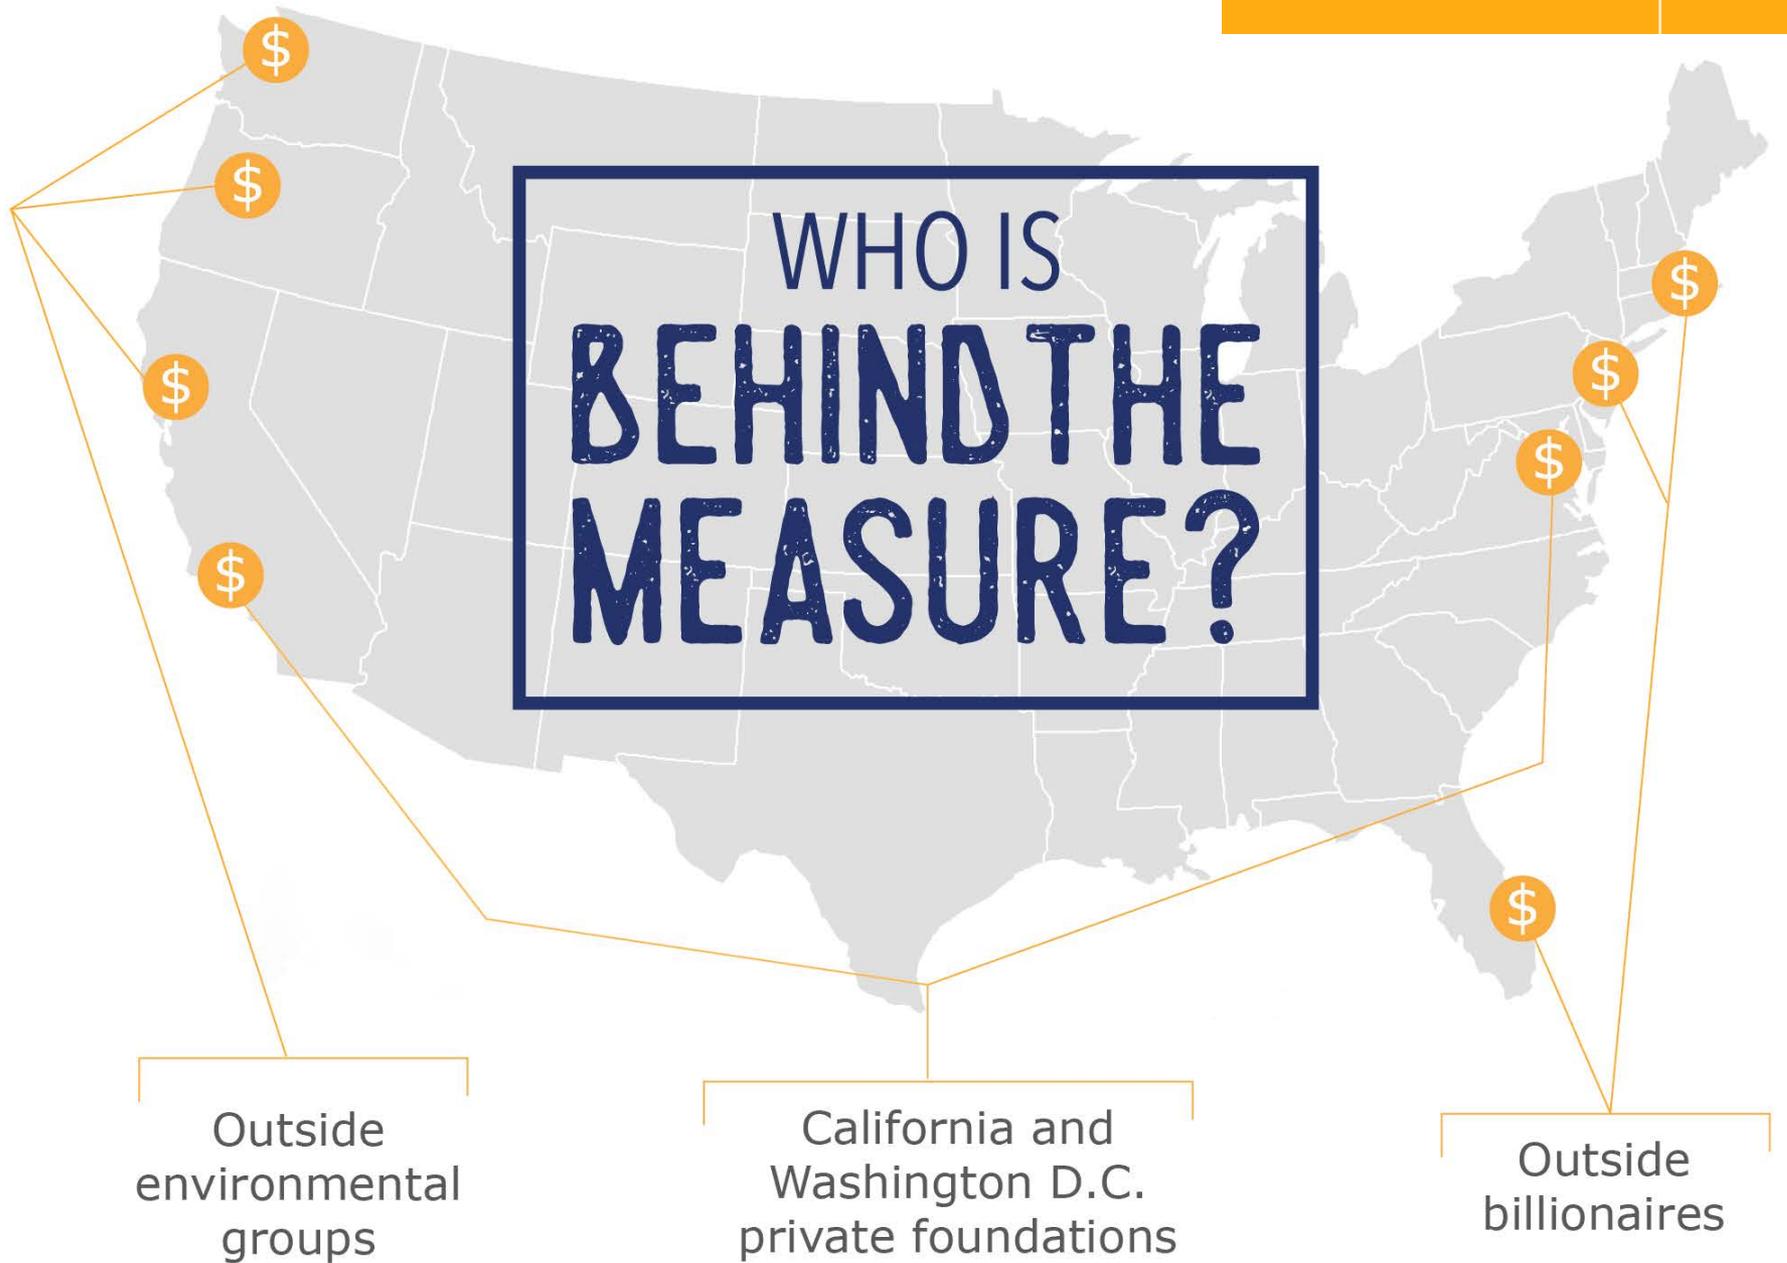

Prescriptive language

Developed behind closed doors,
no public input
or scrutiny

Anti-resource industry agenda

Overhaul not requested by ADF&G

THE MYTHS

NOT TRUE

Alaska does not adequately protect our fish habitat.

NOT TRUE

We have not increased fish habitat protections in 60 years.

NOT TRUE

We don't use science to guide permitting.

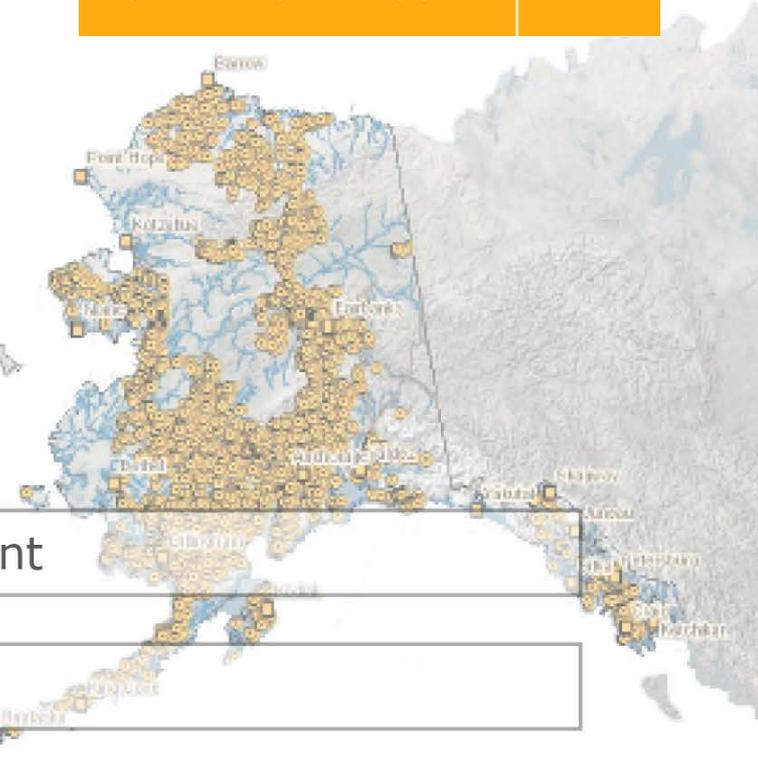

NOT TRUE

There's no opportunity for public input.

NOT TRUE

This won't impact existing projects.

THE FACTS

National model for fishery management

ADF&G uses robust scientific process

Fish habitat protections are expanded to new areas each year

18 state and federal policies that protect fish habitat

Public comment on major permits

No grandfather clause

A photograph of two workers in safety gear (hard hats and high-visibility vests) standing on a grassy hillside. The worker on the right is pointing towards the distance. The background shows rolling hills and a cloudy sky. The text is overlaid on a semi-transparent blue box in the center of the image.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN FOR ALASKA ?

JOB LOSS + SLOWED ECONOMY

Oil and Gas

Mining

Construction

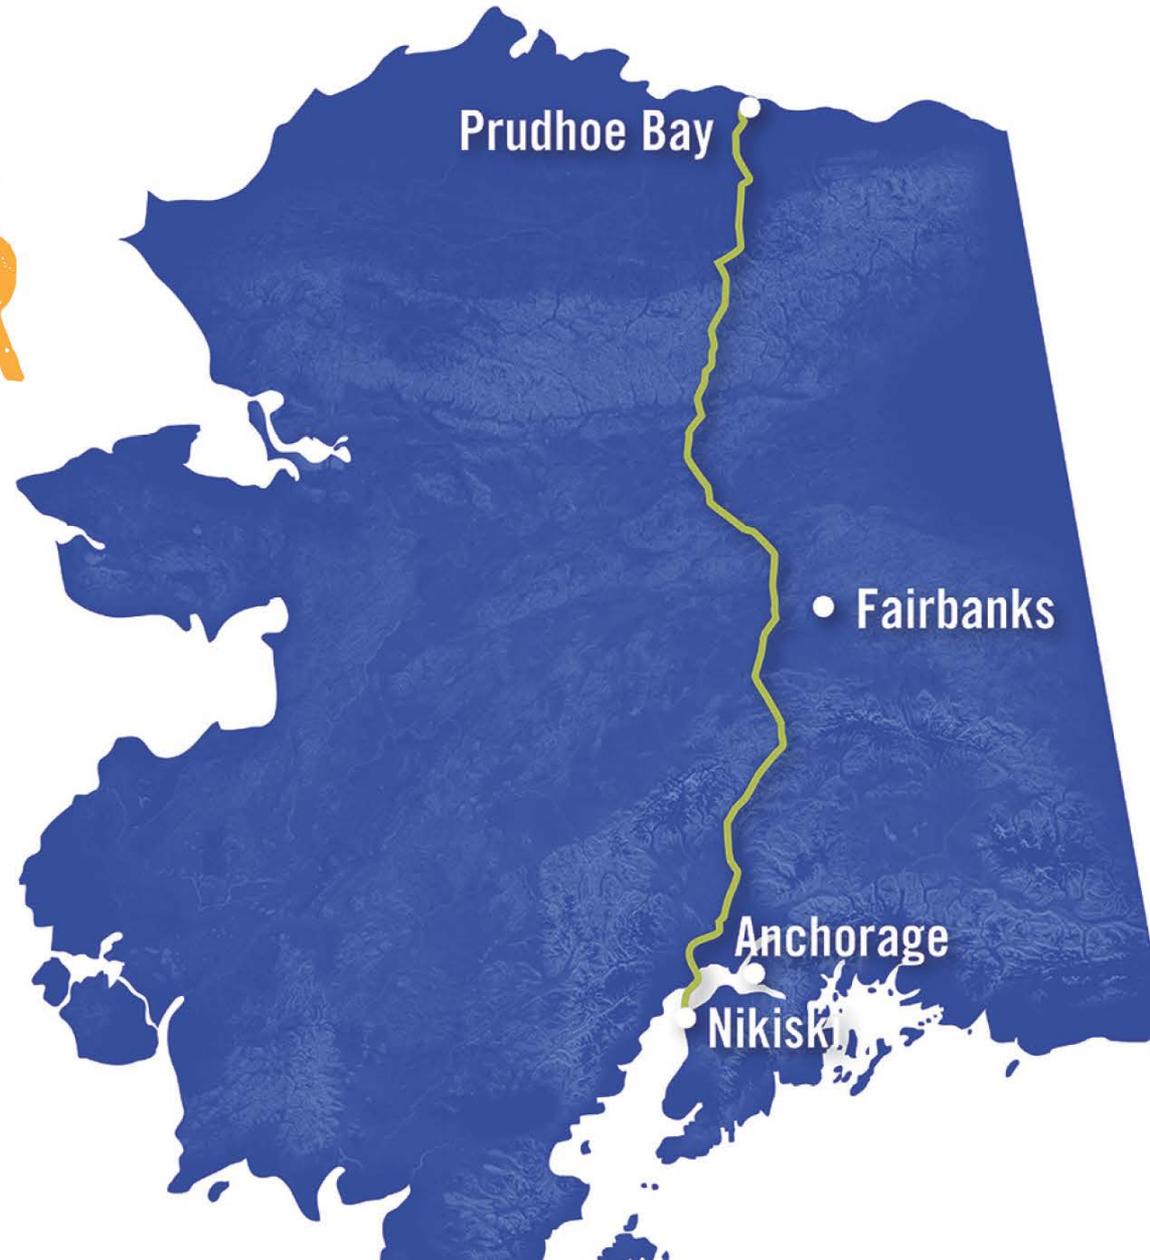

Forestry

Tourism

FUTURE OPPORTUNITIES WOULD DISAPPEAR

GAS PIPELINE

BALANCE

A photograph of a herd of reindeer in a snowy landscape. In the background, there is a building with a sign that says "BALANCE". A large metal post with the number "6364-74" is visible on the right. The scene is set in a winter environment with snow on the ground and rooftops.

Upends the balance between economy and environment

11.16.17

"There will not be another significant project built in rural Alaska if this initiative passes."

AARON SCHUTT

President & CEO, Doyon, Limited

HOW DOES THIS IMPACT
YOU?

Road repairs or construction could be costly or impossible

Hydro electric projects and wastewater treatment facilities would violate proposed standards

Private property owners subjected to stringent permitting process for projects as simple as

docks

culverts

septic systems
